Chufa.

Editors Dispatch: If there is a seed-store in Richmond I hope the proprietor will buy from Magnolia, Miss., or some other place, a sufficient amount of chufa to supply the people of Virginia. It is said that one acre will produce five times as much chufa as corn, and will fatten fifteen hogs. It is planted about March or April in drills two feet wide, with one grain to every nine inches in the drills. If it is planted near the house the chickens will scratch it up. It will be a great benefit to rich and poor. I hope the Richmond papers will copy this for the benefit of the people. E. Dodson.

"Senator Conkling's sister is employed as an examiner of female smurglers in New York enstom-house."

Livow nothing of this, but I do know that Roscoe B. Conkling has the reputation, the exalted reputation, considering his position, associations, and presumable opportunities—of being a poor man. I have said as hard things about his politics as most people, and unless he repents, of which it is fair to say there is small sign, expect to continue that criticism; but I have never forborne to say on proper occasions, as this seems to be, that however heterodox his sacrifice, he ministers with clean hands. The tongue of calumny has never whispered reproach of venality against him, and every American citizen, regardless of politics, should feel, as I confess I feel, pride in his lofty character in this respect.

A Pertinent Question.

JANNARY 8, 1878.

We would like to know is the member from Rockbridge ready to pay for the facilities furnished them by the construction of the canal, or will he repudite the debt of the State, incurred largely in the interest of the people of the western section.

of Virginia as well as within, and with very few exceptions the public press is hearty in its expressions of approval. On the subject of the State debt the trumpet of Governor Holliday utters no uncertain sound. He stands squarely up to the question, and insists that there is but one honest way of dealing with the debt—that is to pay it. Far be the day when Virginia shall have upon her forehead the disgrace and the shame of repudiating a single dollar that is rightfully due to any man!

While the people of this Commonwealth welcome to his seat a chief magistrate whose character and history are a pledge of "what soever things are true, and honest, and just, and pure, and of good report?" they also part with their late Governor With sentinents of profound respect and good will. The name of Governor Kemper deserves a high place among his predecessors, for the integrity, ability and firmness with which he has held the helm of the State during four years of almost unexampled financial depression.—Central Presbyterian.
